ORDER

The Chief Administrative Law Judge has designated the above-referenced cases to me for hearings, scheduled to commence October 14, 2015.

Pursuant to Board Rule and Regulations Sec. 102.31(b), the Regional Director has referred to the assigned administrative law judge for ruling three petitions to revoke subpoenas duces tecum, one filed by each of the respondents in the above-captioned matters.<sup>1</sup> Counsel for the General Counsel has filed an opposition to two of the three petitions to revoke, and one may anticipate an opposition will be filed forthwith to the third and most recently-filed petition.

<sup>1</sup>Respondent Seagate Technology LLC filed a petition to revoke subpoena B-1-OBG6LD in case 18-CA-138463, on September 22, 2015; Respondent Medtronic, Inc., filed a petition to revoke subpoena B-1-OBHWMZ in case 18-CA-138607, on September 23, 2015; and Respondent Boston Scientific Corporation filed a petition to revoke subpoena B-1-OBL9ZL in case 18-CA-138485, on September 25, 2015.

It is hereby ORDERED that Counsel for the General Counsel and Counsel for Respondents in each of the above-referenced matters, consult in person or by telephone, and in good-faith, by and including October 1, 2015, for the purpose of attempting to eliminate or narrow the scope of their subpoena disputes. Counsel are further directed to file a report with the Judge's Division on or before the close of business on October 2, 2015, setting forth the scope of any subpoena disputes remaining in the wake of their good-faith consultation. Any remaining dispute will be discussed and/or ruled upon at an upcoming prehearing conference call that is to be scheduled by the Division of Judges.

Dated, Washington, D.C. September 28, 2015.
